1. Basic Philosophy & Aims and Admission Policy

The basic philosophy of the Doctoral Course of the Graduate School of Health Sciences is to contribute to the establishment and development of educational system of health sciences by developing and integrating the knowledge and skills acquired in the Master's Course of each department: Nursing, Radiological Sciences and Medical Laboratory Sciences. The Doctoral Course aims to foster individuals who have research skills based on a broad perspective and specialized education, and who can play a leading role in research teams and team medicine, in other words, advanced medical professionals in the medical field and individuals with excellent research skills, with a view to maintaining and improving the human health and quality of community medicine, as well as to train educators and researchers for institutions of higher education.

In light of the above, the Doctoral Course seeks individuals:

- ① who have enthusiasm to contribute to the health needs of the nation.
- ② who have the basic academic abilities to receive education in health sciences.
- ③ who have a strong desire to pursue health studies and be proactive in their studies and self-development.
- ④ who aim to become practical leaders or educators/researchers in the field of health, medical care, and welfare.
- ⑤ who are willing to contribute to the local communities in the areas of their expertise as well as to think and play active roles from a global perspective.

2. Number of Students to be Admitted

- (2) Payment period: February 4 (Tue) to February 7 (Fri), 2025
- (3) Where to pay: At the reception counter of a post office or bank

Bank transfer fees shall be borne by the applicant.

Do not use an ATM (automated-teller machine) for the payment. Be sure to pay at the reception counter of a post office or bank.

(4) How to pay

①[For applicants who reside in Japan]

Please pay the examination fee at the reception counter of a post office or a bank after filling out the examination fee payment form. Do not use an ATM (automated-teller machine) for the payment.

After the payment, be sure to attach the “Certificate of Payment” issued at the reception counter to the “Sheet for Examination Fee Payment Certificate” and submit the Sheet.

②[For applicants from abroad]

Please contact the Finance Affairs Division (zak-syunyu@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp) by e-mail before payment.

Bank transfer fees shall be borne by the applicant.

(5) Important notes regarding application

① Application will not be accepted, if the examination fee has not been paid, or if the “Certificate of Payment” is not attached to the designated place of the “Sheet for Examination Fee Payment Certificate.”

② Once the application documents are received, the examination fee will not be refunded except for the following cases:

1) The applicant has paid the examination fee, but the application has not been made (either the application documents have not been submitted or they have not been accepted by the university), or

2) The applicant has paid the examination fee more than once by mistake.

③ Bank transfer fees for refunding shall be borne by the applicant.

How to request for a refund of the examination fee

Prepare a “Request for a refund of the examination fee” (any format is acceptable), which clearly shows the reason for the request, applicant’s name (with name seal on the right of applicant’s name), name of Graduate School the applicant has applied for, applicant’s current address, postal code, contact phone number, name of the bank to be used for transfer, branch name, account number of an ordinary deposit and accountholder’s name (with the name in English). If the applicant’s name and accountholder’s name are different, the relationship between the applicant and the accountholder must be also indicated. Then, send it with the “Certificate of Payment” attached to the “Sheet for Examination Fee Payment Certificate” by mail immediately.

Applications will be accepted until March 31, 2025. The paid examination fee will be refunded after the month following the date of receipt of the request.

If you wish to confirm receipt of your refund request, please use the postal tracking service for registered or recorded mail.

Where to send:

Finance Affairs Division, Administrative Department, Kumamoto University

2-39-1 Kurokami, Chuo-ku, Kumamoto City, Kumamoto, JAPAN

Postal code: 860-8555

E-mail: zak-syunyu@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp

*Please contact Admission Division (E-mail: nyushi@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp) if you wish us to refund the examination fee to your bank account outside Japan.

11. Announcement of Successful Applicants

March 7 (Fri), 2025

Notification of acceptance will be mailed directly to successful applicants.

In addition, the examination ID numbers of successful applicants will be announced on the website of Kumamoto University (<https://www.kumamoto-u.ac.jp/>) at around 11 a.m. on the announcement day. (The announcement on the website may delay depending on the communication environment on that day.)

Inquiries regarding examination results by telephone will not be accepted.

12. Enrollment Procedure

(1) Enrollment procedure

Details of the enrollment procedure will be provided with the notification of acceptance.
Enrollment procedure should be completed online.

Required expenses at the time of enrollment

Entrance fee: 282,000 yen (expected amount)

Those who do not complete the enrollment procedure during the designated period will be considered to have declined admission to the Graduate School of Health Sciences.

(2) Tuition

Per each first and second semester: 267,900 yen (annual amount: 535,800 yen) (expected amount)

Note: If the amount of tuition is revised, the new amount will apply from the time of revision.

(3) Exemption system for affected households in areas covered by the Disaster Relief Act

For students whose financial providers live in areas covered by the Disaster Relief Act and who have difficulty paying the entrance and tuition fees due to a disaster to which the Disaster Relief Act applies, payment of the full or half amount of the entrance and tuition fees may be exempted if approved upon the student's application and screening process. (In the case of a half-tuition fee exemption, the payment of the entrance fee will be postponed for a certain period if approved.)

Note: The application covers entrance and tuition fees to be paid within one year of the occurrence of the disaster.

[Contact] Economic Support Office, Student Life Division, StudentAffairs Department
TEL 096-342-2126

13. Scholarships

[For Japanese students]

Students can apply for the scholarship of the Japan Student Services Organization for the First-class Scholarship (choices are from the monthly loan of 80,000 yen or 122,000 yen) or the Second-class Scholarship (choices are from the monthly loan of 50,000 yen, 80,000 yen, 100,000 yen, 130,000 or 150,000 yen depending on the screening result). Other scholarships from local governments and private organizations may also be available.

14. Entrance Fee Exemption/Postponement and Tuition Fee Exemption

Those who meet the qualifications for entrance fee exemption/postponement and tuition fee exemption, if approved based on the screening of their applications, will be exempted from paying the full or half amount of the entrance fee or will be allowed to defer payment of the entrance fee, and will be exempted from paying the full or half of the tuition fee.

Applicants who meet both the academic and household criteria will be selected within the University's budget in order from those with the highest level of household financial need.

The academic criteria for the entrance and tuition fee exemption requires that the applicant's academic performance should be above the standard set by the graduate school to which the applicant belongs. The academic criteria for the entrance fee postponement requires that the applicant should have passed the entrance examination of the graduate school to which the applicant belongs.

The entrance/tuition fee exemption will not be granted to those who do not meet the academic criteria, even if they are in a situation of high household financial need.

The new system of financial aid for higher education is only available to undergraduate students, and there is no tuition fee exemption for graduate students under the new system. Therefore, please note that even if you were granted an entrance/tuition fee exemption as an undergraduate student under the new system or the university's own exemption system, it does not necessarily mean that you will also be granted an entrance/tuition fee exemption for graduate school.

Students from households that are unable to pay the entrance and tuition fees due to the death of their financial provider or the damage to the student or their financial provider caused by a natural disaster within one year prior to enrollment will be exempted from paying the entrance fee and full or half of the tuition fee if their application for exemption is approved. (In the case of a half tuition exemption, the payment of the entrance fee can be postponed for a certain period.)

16. Others

(1) Special Arrangements for School Hours

The Graduate School of Health Sciences offers evening classes, classes at specific times or periods, and intensive courses for students who are enrolled as working adults in accordance with Article 14 of the Standards for the Establishment of Graduate Schools. Those who wish to apply for these arrangements should make a request at the time of prior consultation.

(2) Long-term Enrollment System

The Graduate School of Health Sciences may permit students who wish to systematically complete a course of study for a certain period of time (up to 6 years) beyond the standard term of study (3 years) for reasons such as having an occupation, to do so after screening. Students who are enrolled through this system are referred to as "long-term students," and their total tuition payment will be the same as that of students who complete their studies within the standard period of study.

The application form for long-term enrollment will be enclosed in the enrollment procedure guide, and applicants must submit it by the designated deadline.

(3) Important Notes

- ① Once the application documents have been received, no changes can be made to the content of the documents, nor can the entrance examination fee or application materials be returned.
- ② Those who have made false statements in their applications will be disqualified from taking the examination, and their admission may be revoked if found out later.
- ③ Be sure to bring your Admission Ticket with you when you take the examination. The Admission Ticket will be also required for various procedures related to enrollment, so do not lose it after passing the entrance examination.
- ④ Applicants with physical disabilities who wish to receive special consideration for taking the examination and studying after enrolled should contact the Student Affairs Office of the Graduate School of Health Sciences, Kumamoto University by January 10 (Thu), 2025.
- ⑤ No private vehicles are allowed to enter or park on the university campus.
